(5) Do you know a M. Galinet of the French Surêté? Answer: Yes. (Weak reaction.)

(12) Other than Galinet and the three individuals you mentioned, have you spoken to any French Surêté officials? Answer: No. (Weak reaction.)

(13) Did you inform ( ) on all details of this association with the French? Answer: No. (Weak reaction.)

(14) Has Galinet ever visited you at your home or office? Answer: No. (Reaction.) This was Subject's strongest area of sensitivity on the test. Subject claimed that Galinet may have attempted to visit him at his home or office but that he was not aware of any such attempt. Subject continued to react to this question on subsequent charts. Subject appears to be withholding information in this area.

(15) Have you seen Galinet personally at any time since your last meeting with him in early June 1953? Answer: No. (Weak reaction.) Subject may be withholding information on this question.

(16) Are you presently in contact with any other Allied intelligence agency? Answer: No. (No reaction.)

(17) Have you ever had, or do you now have any contact with any Communist intelligence service? Answer: No. (No reaction.)

3. Conclusions:

a. Subject's reactions during LCFLUTTER testing were for the most part weak and inconsistent. Control reactions (induced fear) were not strong and consequently not useful as a valid basis for comparison to relevant questions. Subject's only consistent and comparatively strong reaction occurred in question (14) in paragraph 3 above. In the opinion of the examiner, the Subject is withholding information on this question.

b. The Subject appeared to be unconcerned and unaffected during LCFLUTTER testing and pre-testing interview. At no time did the Subject appear to be outwardly disturbed about the questions relating to his contacts with the Surêté. There appeared to be no fear of possible consequences on his part, and he seemed to accept the interview rather casually.

DISSEMINATION OF ANY PORTION OF THIS REPORT MUST BE VERBATIM.
